DAY 2

BREATHE

Step outside & breathe in the fresh air. Have breakfast outside or in the lounge.

Gear up for today's great ride.

RIDE

Today, we're warming up the legs on the famed Passo di Gavia. This is the climb where Andy Hampsten wore the leader's jersey and went on to win in a blizzard.

We'll be riding this same climb in better conditions and a warm pie at the top.

Be sure to check out the photos of past Giro d'Italia races.

Did you know...

...the Dolomites were the front line of the Austrian - German border during WWI?

Extensive cables - tunnels - trails were built to move both soldiers and supplies. The tunnels still exist today.

DAY 3

CLEAN Yes, it's laundry day! It wouldn't be a real vacation without someone washing your wears. Right?

WWI HIKE The Dolomites was an instrumental location for hiding soldiers and supplies during WWI.

Take a hike with our local guide, see tunnels and hear stories of suffering & survival during WWI.

OR... RIDE Want more climbing?
We've got options.

Climb the Foscagno or Bormio 2000 or the Motirolo out & back.
